

What about non-normal (e.g. skewed populations)?

Use the programs called SKEWPOP(x) and SEEMEANS to investigate whether the patterns you have discovered about 'normal' populations are evident when we sample from a non-normal population.

Room for your finding.