

.csv file title explanations

The following explains the titles of each column in the .csv files that are generated by our sampler. Please refer to (and print out if required) the actual questions from the website.

The .csv file will open in MS Excel if double-clicked in a Windows environment.

If you have a MacIntosh, you may need to open MS Excel first and then choose File and Open and open the .csv file.

Case Number

Each person who submitted a response has been given a case number. The case numbers have been randomly allocated to individuals, so there is no meaning to the order. It is not possible to identify any individual by this number.
